

JACK LONDON SQUARE Restaurants and Bars

Jack London Square is one of the top restaurant and entertainment destinations in the San Francisco Bay Area, situated on the picturesque Oakland waterfront. From haute cuisine to Pan-American and artisan pizza to an impressive raw bar, there is truly something for everyone at this one-of-a-kind food mecca. Top rated chefs are drawn to Jack London Square's unique location where several restaurants offer access to the picturesque waterfront with exquisite views for diners, as well as outdoor dining.

What's On the Menu at Jack London Square:

Jack's Oyster Bar & Fish House

Combining the talents of Chef Owner Rick Hackett, Executive Chef Arnold Pulido and Pastry Chef Paul Conte, the Jack's Oyster Bar & Fish House menu encompasses everything from an impressive raw bar featuring East & West Coast oysters to a wide array of fish-centric dishes, crudos, ceviches, salads, sandwiches and mains.

Plank

From crab cakes to char siu burritos, Plank is one of Oakland's tastiest dining hotspots featuring a varied menu of fresh, diverse urban cuisine. It's also a 50,000 square foot entertainment hub, offering indoor and outdoor space filled with interactive fun including state-of-the-art bowling, bocce ball, an outdoor beer garden featuring more than 50 handcrafted beers, flat-screen HDTVs for sports viewing, video games and more.

Haven

Michelin-starred chef Daniel Patterson's outpost in Oakland offers elevated American food featuring family meal favorites reimaged through the expert techniques of executive chef Matt Brimer. Haven's approachable creations are served in a community-minded space with a sense of comfort and warmth coupled with a family style menu that changes every night. The restaurant's full bar includes carefully curated wines and handcrafted cocktails made with the freshest ingredients.

Steel Rail

Jack London Square's newest offering, Steel Rail is a café that honors Oakland's storied past and celebrates the city's people in the heart of the waterfront. It's a place for the community to grab a casual bite, drink, share and unwind over fresh salads, soups, flatbreads, melts and more.

Bocanova

Rick Hackett's Bocanova celebrates the cultural sensibilities of Central and South America, incorporating the bounty, talent and cultural diversity of the San Francisco Bay Area with locally sourced ingredients and recipes inspired by regions from Mexico to Argentina. In addition to culinary delights, Bocanova's bar offers seasonally inspired handcrafted cocktails.

Forge Pizza

At this pizza and beer establishment, the pizzas and other dishes are perfectly blistered and roasted in an Italian-imported Valoriani oven, known as the "Ferrari of pizza ovens." Pizza lovers will delight in the selection of nearly a dozen handmade pies including smoked prosciutto, spicy salami, cauliflower and more. The Forge menu also features non-pizza offerings such as shishito peppers, mussels and braised short ribs.

Lungomare

Lungomare combines the best of both the Tuscan and Ligurian regions of Italy right on the waterfront. The menu offers a range of specialties: seafood, house-cured meats, rustic pizza and fresh pasta, with dishes locally sourced whenever possible. A separate cafe is attached to the restaurant for guests looking for a quick stop for coffee, juices and baked treats.

Yoshi's Oakland

Since 1972, jazz-and-food mainstay Yoshi's has evolved into one of the world's most respected jazz venues, as well as a local favorite for Japanese cuisine. From handmade sushi rolls to traditional tempura and seasonal sides to gyoza lasagna, the restaurant's expansive menu offers something for everyone. Yoshi's Oakland also boasts a reputation as the San Francisco Bay Area's premier location for people looking for great food and the best jazz music around.

Il Pescatore Ristorante

Il Pescatore features dishes from numerous regions of the Italian peninsula. The restaurant's interior has the appearance of an old wooden ship and overlooks the Oakland estuary waterfront from almost every vantage point.

Kincaid's

This classic American grill has been artfully serving quality steaks and fresh and innovative seafood since 1983. The newly renovated restaurant, situated right on the water, is also known for its sumptuous brunch fare offering everything from oysters to the signature Kincaid's benedicts.

Scott's Seafood Restaurant

Celebrating a 40-year history in the San Francisco Bay Area, Scott's Seafood Restaurant has become a favorite of both locals and visitors. The ever-changing menu features the freshest cuisine with a Seafood Extravaganza from June through November that celebrates fine, sustainable seafood dishes from around the world. Scott's Seafood Restaurant also offers an array of hospitality options including the perfect waterfront venue for events.

Rosenblum Cellars

Visit the original urban winery and Zinfandel pioneer in its all-new Oakland location on the Jack London Square waterfront. Visitors are invited to sample more than 20 types of Zinfandels from Rosenblum Cellars' award-winning collection of wines.

Heinold's First and Last Chance Saloon

Take a step back in time at Oakland's first beer tavern, Heinold's First and Last Chance Saloon. With its deeply sloped floor and large pints of beer, one can imagine sailors from days gone by enjoying a libation or visualize famed author Jack London at a corner table dreaming up the characters for his next novel.
